Silverado Resort in Napa Valley Unveils Holiday Season Offerings

From Thanksgiving Feasts to Festive New Year's Celebrations, Silverado Resort Delivers an Unforgettable Holiday Experience

Napa, CA – Silverado Resort is excited to announce its enchanting holiday season lineup, featuring an array of festive events and culinary delights that promise to make this season truly magical. From bountiful Thanksgiving feasts to dazzling Christmas celebrations and a spectacular New Year's Eve, at Silverado Resort, the holiday season is a time of unparalleled celebration and festivity. This year, the resort is pulling out all the stops with a diverse lineup of holiday events designed to create lasting memories. From the moment Thanksgiving approaches, guests can indulge in a mouthwatering Thanksgiving Buffet, featuring a grand array of seasonal dishes including Roasted Diestel Ranch Turkey and Prime Rib, served in the elegantly decorated Ballroom and Fairway Deck. The celebrations continue with the Thanksgiving Bake Sale at The Market, where a selection of gourmet baked goods such as Pumpkin Roll and Praline Pecan Pie are available, capturing the essence of the season with every bite.

"We are thrilled to kick off the holiday season at Silverado Resort. With an exciting array of festive events and mouth-watering culinary delights, this year promises to be nothing short of magical. We invite everyone to join us in celebrating the joy, warmth, and wonder of the holidays." — Todd Shalan, Vice President & Managing Director of Silverado Resort.

As December unfolds, Silverado Resort transforms into a winter wonderland with festive events that highlight the magic of the season. The annual tree-lighting celebration takes place on Friday, November 29, with singing, dancing, holiday treats, and festive beverages. The Santa Train will also return that evening and run on weekends through December 22. Families can enjoy Breakfast with Santa at the Grill, a heartwarming tradition featuring a delightful buffet and quality time with Santa. The Christmas Bake Sale, starting December 13th, offers an array of festive treats like Black Forest Yule Log and Peppermint Bark, with a portion of proceeds benefiting No Kid Hungry. Another Silverado tradition is the enchanting Hanukkah celebration on December 26, from 5:30-6:30 pm. Mingle with loved ones around the oversized menorah while enjoying hot cocoa, coffee, or tea to complete the evening. Come and create lasting memories and share joy in the Festival of Lights! The season culminates in a grand New Year's Eve celebration in the Ballroom, featuring a cash bar, a light buffet of elegant bites, and a lively DJ, ensuring a spectacular start to the new year. With these offerings, Silverado Resort provides an unforgettable holiday experience, brimming with joy, elegance, and festive cheer.
